

DELIGROC

DeliGroc is a feature-rich grocery delivery app template designed to build on-demand platforms for daily essentials and supermarket shopping. It provides a structured multi-app ecosystem with dedicated User, Delivery, and Vendor modules to support end-to-end grocery ordering and fulfillment. Customers can browse products, manage carts, apply promo codes, complete secure payments, and track orders in real time. Delivery personnel can manage assigned orders with live status updates and route tracking, while vendors handle inventory, product listings, order processing, and sales insights. Built with a clean, modular, and scalable architecture, DeliGroc ensures high performance, easy customization, and developer-friendly integration for launching modern grocery delivery applications.
